SEC. 2. That section 13½ of ordinance No. 1055 be, and is hereby, amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 13½. It is hereby declared to be a nuisance and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation as principal, agent, officer, clerk, or employee, for himself or itself, or for another person, firm, or corporation to keep on any premises more than 50 in all of chickens, turkeys, pigeons, and doves, or hares or rabbits, or more than 12 in all of geese, ducks, guinea fowls, and peafowls, within 50 feet of any dwelling house or structure intended for use as a dwelling house, unless such house or structure shall be owned or occupied by him or it, or unless such house or structure is located nearer to the rear lot line of the lot on which it stands than one-third of the depth of such lot."

PASSAIC, N. J.

Domestic Animals—Keeping of. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 10, 1914.)

SEC. 126. No animal shall be kept or housed in any structure built or located within 25 feet of any building occupied by human beings in the city of Passaic, except upon special permission from the board of health. The location, construction, erection, and sanitary condition of all such structures shall be made satisfactory to the officers of this board. Plans approved by the board of health shall be filed with said board before any such building shall hereafter be constructed, altered, extended, or moved.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay a penalty of $50.

Fowls—Keeping of—Permit Required. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 10, 1914.)

SEC. 125. No live poultry or fowl of any kind shall be kept or maintained within the city limits without a permit from the board of health, subject to the provisions thereof. Said permit shall be granted upon the payment of a fee of 50 cents, and shall be revocable at the pleasure of this board. Said permit shall be renewed annually and all such permits shall expire upon the 1st day of July of each year.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay a penalty of $10.

Fowls—Keeping of. (Reg. Bd. of H., July 1, 1914.)

That the keeping or maintaining of any live poultry or fowl within the city limits shall be in compliance with the following conditions:

1. Such fowl or poultry shall not be kept in any building occupied by human beings, except a public market, nor kept on any tenement-house lot and shall not run at large, but shall be confined in suitable houses or coops with inclosed runways, no part of which shall be within 20 feet of any building occupied by human beings.

2. Such houses or coops hereafter erected shall have the plans thereof filed with and approved by the officers of this board. Said plans shall show the construction and location of said houses or coops and runways. The officers of this board, if they deem it necessary, may order relocation, alteration, or elimination of any existing house, coops, or runways in which fowl or poultry are kept.
